POLICY ON POLICIES

Category: Operational

Created: May 9 2015 by Executive

Responsibility: Secretary

Last Amended: April 27 2021 by Executive

1. Policies of the Students' Union

Policies of the Students' Union may be adopted by the Board of Directors or by the membership at the general meeting or through referenda. Policies shall outline administrative and operational structures and principles established to guide, and provide consistency to, the management of the Students' Union.

2. Changes to Member Adopted Policies

Changes to policy adopted by a vote of the general members shall be adopted as per the bylaws of the society.

3. Changes to Board Policies and Procedures

Changes to Board adopted policy shall require the support of $\frac{3}{4}$ of voting board members.

4. Organization of Policies

Each policy shall be allocated to an area of the Students' Union's operations and provided with identifying numbers. All policy shall be labeled with the date it was adopted or amended, and whether the policy was adopted or amended by either the Executive Committee, or by the membership during a General Meeting or Referendum.

2.1 Poster Boards

Category:	Services	Created:	Aug 31, 2002 by Executive
Responsibility:	Membership Outreach	Last Amended:	July 8, 2025 by Executive

1. Purpose

Notwithstanding priority use for Students' Union business, special events and other circumstances, posters of interest to the membership may be approved for posting on designated bulletin boards provided that all applicable policies and regulations are adhered to.

2. Authorization

All posters must be reviewed and approved by a member of the Executive Committee, Staff or the Executive Director, and stamped with both the Students' Union stamp and the date the poster must be taken down, before being placed on any of the designated bulletin boards. Authorization may be withheld for posters deemed to be to be inappropriate or in violation of the Students' Union policies.

3. Limitations:

- a) Posters may only be placed on bulletin boards designated for public use by the Executive Committee.
- b) Posters shall be no bigger than 11 inches by 17 inches in size. A maximum of one (1) of the same or similar posters may be placed on each bulletin board. A member of the Executive Committee or Students' Union staff may waive this limitation upon request with additional charges if applicable.
- c) Posters shall remain on bulletin boards for a maximum of one month or until the advertised event ends. A member of the Executive Committee or Students' Union staff may waive this limitation upon request, at their discretion.
- d) Posters may not be placed in a manner that covers posters already in place.
- e) Posters may not be attached to bulletin boards in such a manner as to cause damage to the boards. This includes, but is not limited to, the use of glue or staples.
- f) Only a maximum of 12 of the same poster may be approved at a time. A member of the Executive Committee or Students' Union staff may waive this limitation upon request, at their discretion.

4. Content:

- a) Posters may not contain statements of any kind or format that violates municipal, provincial, or federal laws, the BC Human Rights Code, or any other formal regulation put in place by the Students' Union.
- b) Posters advertising services or products for businesses are permitted, provided that a fee of five dollars ($5.00) for posters is paid at the time of authorization. Authorization will not be provided on credit. This fee shall be waived for posters of a commercial nature that primarily advertise a student discount, for posters of a charity fundraising event, or a promotional poster from a registered non-profit organization.

5. Penalties for Violation of Policy

- a) The Students' Union reserves the right to remove and destroy without compensation any posters that are posted in a manner that violates this policy.
- b) Person(s) or organization(s) found to be repeatedly violating this policy shall receive a warning.
- c) Person(s) or organization(s) found to be continuing to violate this policy after being warned as per article ii), or are found to be intentionally violating this policy, shall be prohibited from using any designated bulletin boards for the remainder of the academic year.

6. Appeal of Decisions Regarding Poster Authorization and Removal

Individuals or organizations disagreeing with decisions related to the authorization or removal of posters may file an appeal in writing for consideration at the next regularly scheduled Executive Committee meeting.

7. Posting of Bulletin Board Policy

This policy shall be posted on CNCSU website. The person(s) or organization(s) wishing to receive authorization for posters shall be requested to review the policy at same time as posters are being authorized.

2.2 Clubs

Category:	Services	Created:	Aug 31, 2002 by Executive
Responsibility:	Membership Outreach	Last Amended:	July 4th 2025 by Executive

1. Preamble

Clubs are designed to enhance the post-secondary education experience by offering members the opportunity to pursue their interests beyond strictly academic endeavors. Clubs are intended to foster a positive environment for members to express themselves and to join in activities within the diverse community of the College of New Caledonia.

2. Categories

There shall be six (6) categories of Clubs:

- a) Academic*
- b) Activist/Political
- c) Interest
- d) Religious/Philosophical
- e) Service
- f) Athletic/Recreation

*Although academic clubs are permitted, participation must be open to all members to promote inter faculty relations

A list of all officially recognized clubs under each category shall be kept in the Students' Union office, and made available to members upon request.

3. Official Recognition

- a. To become an officially recognized club, each club must fully complete and submit to the Membership Outreach Coordinator an official request form, as designated by the Executive Committee. The club must provide the following information on the form:
 - i. the name of the club;
 - ii. the purposes, goals and objectives of the club;
 - iii. a copy of the club's constitution (if one exists);
 - iv. names, student numbers and contact information of the club's executive;
 - v. names and student numbers of the club's members;
- b. Clubs must notify the Membership Outreach Coordinator of any changes in the club's executive and membership ~~at least once a month~~.
- c. The Executive Committee has the right to refuse any applications based on reasonable grounds.
- d. Clubs may change executive by written request to the Membership Outreach Coordinator, with signoff of previous executives.

4. Membership

- a. Each club must allow any interested member of the Students' Union to join.
- b. No club shall have fewer than ten (10) active members. This requirement may be waived by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Executive Committee.
- c. Clubs are allowed to have a membership fee to fund club activities, however, all members of the students union are allowed to participate in club activities even if they are not able to pay the membership fee.
- d. All members of the club must be members in good standing, as per Bylaw II, section 4 of the Students' Union Constitution and Bylaws.

5. Club Executive

- a. Each club shall have an executive consisting of no less than three (3) positions consisting of a President, Vice President, and Treasurer. The Membership Outreach Coordinator may change the position titles and executive structure at their discretion, with a written request from the club executive.
- b. The executive of each club shall be elected by the membership of the club as per the constitution of the club. No members of a club shall be denied the right to vote in the election of the executive of the club. If there is no constitution for the club, executives are appointed by the Membership Outreach Coordinator.
- c. Should the executive not be meeting the expectations outlined during the creation of the club (refer to 3. ii), club executives may be removed from their positions with approval of the Executive Committee. Removed executive may still maintain membership in the club that they were removed from unless they are no longer a member in good standing.

6. Club Funding

- a. Notwithstanding the amount budgeted for clubs in a particular fiscal year, upon acceptance of a written request a club shall be entitled to an initial Basic Operating Grant of two hundred dollars ($200.00) per academic year. Clubs may also be approved for a Matching Grant of up to five hundred dollars ($500) to encourage fundraising efforts. Clubs looking to access the Membership Grant must communicate their intent to the Membership Outreach Coordinator before raising funds.
- b. Membership fees imposed by the club and donations of items other than money to the club shall not be considered as funds collected by fundraising.
- c. The Executive Committee has the right to refuse any funding requests based on reasonable grounds.
- d. In order to be eligible for the Basic Operating Grant and/or Matching Grants each club must fully complete and submit to the Membership Outreach Coordinator an official request form, as designated by the Executive Committee, detailing the following information:
 - i.name of the club;
 - ii.names, student numbers and contact information of the club's executive;
 - iii.a brief description of activities already completed in the current academic year (if any);
 - iv.an outline of proposed activities for the remainder of the current academic year; and
 - v.a copy of financial records or statements that indicate the current financial status of the club and who the signing officers are.

If the club is applying for a Matching Grant, a detailed explanation of why the club needs the additional funds must also be provided.

- e. Students' Union members shall have the right to view all funding requests (except for the names, personal contact information and student numbers of club members) from clubs during normal office hours provided that twenty-four (24) hours written notice is given. The names, personal contact information and student numbers of club members shall be considered confidential and may only be accessed by those individuals as designated by the Executive Committee.

7. Reports

- a. All active clubs must provide a monthly report of activities hosted by the club to be reviewed by the Executive Committee. Clubs must submit their report by the final day of the month to the Membership Outreach Coordinator.
- b. Clubs that do not have any activity to report must still provide a report to the Executive Committee by the final day of the month.
- c. Failure to report on club activities may result in disciplinary action as outlined in 5. Club Executive, section "c".

8. Bank Accounts

- a. Clubs are not permitted to hold an external bank account and all club funds must be kept with the CNCSU
- b. Clubs shall be entitled to monthly account statements upon submitting a request to the CNCSU. All requests must be provided through email to the Membership Outreach Coordinator.

9. Signing Authority

- a. Each club must provide a list of no less than two signing officers who are members of the club's executive.
- b. The signatures of the designated signing officers shall be required for all financial expenditures from the club's account(s).
- c. All members of the club's executive shall be accountable to both the club membership and the Students' Union for the activities of the club including any financial mismanagement and bad debts.

10. Authorized Expenditures

- a. Clubs are authorized to spend their Basic Operating Grants and Matching Grants only as outlined in their proposals to the Membership Outreach Coordinator.
- b. Clubs may not spend Basic Operating Grants and Matching Grants on the following:
 - i.Capital Expenditures: the purchase of items including, but not limited to, furniture and classroom equipment;

- ii. Individual Gain: any activities that result in the personal benefit of individuals members as opposed to providing a benefit to all club members;
- iii. Funding Political Parties: while activist/political clubs may exist, no funds shall be diverted in any manner to political parties or other similar organizations.
- iv. Election Campaigning: funds shall not be used to assist members running for a position on the Executive Committee of the Students' Union, the College Board of Governors or the Education Council.
- v. Referendum Campaigning: funds shall not be used to lobby or support any side in an official Students' Union referendum.
 - c. Clubs that violate this policy are required to return the Basic Operating Grant and Matching Grants they have received during the academic year in full.
 - d. Clubs must submit itemized receipts for all expenses or provide written minutes detailing the purpose of the expenditure and whom will be reimbursed.

11. Dissolution

- a. In the event that club does not renew for 2 consecutive academic years, the club will be dissolved and all remaining funds will be allocated to the general operations of the CNCSU.

12. Acknowledgment of Liability and Club Policy

- a. Before funds are released to a club, the club is required to have an official representative sign on the club's behalf a waiver stating that the club understands and will obey the Students' Union's policies, and declaring the Students' Union free of any and all liability in relation to the club and its activities.
- b. Clubs shall be legally liable for any unauthorized or illegal actions and/or expenditures carried out by any of its members.
- c. The Students' Union takes no responsibility and accepts no liability for any actions and/or expenditures made by clubs.

2.5 U-Pass Program

Category:	Services	Created:	May 9 2015 by Executive
Responsibility:	Office Services	Last Amended:	July 8, 2025 by Executive

Preamble

Since implementation in 2009 Fall, members have benefited from the use of a U-Pass as negotiated between the CNCSU, the College, BC Transit and the Prince George Transit Authority. In 2024, BC Transit shifted to the UMO Mobility app as the primary way of accessing the U-PASS service through the CNCSU.

1. UMO Codes

With verification of payment of the U-Pass Fee, all Prince George and Quesnel campus members shall receive a UMO Code providing them with access to City transit and recreational facilities including value added access to both Prince George Aquatic Centers and Four Seasons pool.

2. UMO Physical Card

The UMO Physical card is limited to students who have little or no access to the digital form (app) or are physically unable to use it. Eligible members will be provided with the physical UMO card at no extra cost, with a sticker providing access to recreational sites like swimming pools in the city.

3. UMO Assistance

Should a member be experiencing technical difficulties in access or using the UMO Mobility app, the Union shall refer them to the UMO Mobility helpline (877-380-8181) for technical assistance.

4. Duration

All Prince George members will be entitled to receive the UMO Code for their U-PASS for the registered semester for which they have been assessed the U-PASS fee.

5. Contact

All other terms and stipulations can be found in the "CNC Universal Bus Pass Agreement"

2.7 Locker Rentals

Category: Services

Created: Aug 31, 2002 by Executive

Responsibility: Secretary (elected)

Last Amended: April 27 2021 by Executive

1. Availability

Notwithstanding priority use for Students' Union business, availability, and other circumstances, lockers will be made available for rent on the Prince George Campus.

- a. Priority for locker rentals shall be given to Students' Union members, as defined in the Students' Union's by-laws.
- b. Non-members enrolled in at least one (1) distance-education course(s) offered by a recognized B.C. public post-secondary institution and require access to College facilities as part of their studies may also rent any lockers still available.
- c. Students' Union representatives shall have the right to refuse to rent a locker based on reasonable grounds. The individual affected may appeal any refusal in writing to the Executive Committee.

2. Period of Use

a. Prince George Campus

- i) Locker rentals shall end no later than the date mentioned in the contract signed by the students.
- ii) Lockers shall be rented out on a per semester basis with a maximum of two semesters at a time. Students' Union Members must be enrolled in at least (1) one course to be eligible for locker rental.

3. Registration

All persons renting a locker must apply in person; and must show either their valid CNC ID Card, and sign the contract in order to rent a locker. The person's name, phone number, and the combination and serial number of his/her lock shall be kept on file in the Students' Union office.

4. Locker Clean Out Notice

The Renter has a responsibility to provide the Students' Union with their primary email, and phone number on the Locker rental registration Form so they may be contacted for a reminder of clean out and lock return before the expiry date. It is the renter's responsibility to update contact information if anything changes during their rental period. The Students' Union is not responsible for incorrect/unprovided contact information. No communication can or will be made if sufficient contact information is not provided at the time of rental/extension.

5. Cost

Both the appropriate rental fee and lock deposit must be paid at the time of registering for a locker. Lockers cannot be provided on credit, except for members being sponsored (funded) by an outside agency (such as Human Resources Development Canada, a First Nations band, etc) that has confirmed in writing that the agency will directly reimburse the Students' Union for the locker rental.

a. Half-Size Lockers

Single half-size lockers shall be rented out at a cost of five dollars ($5.00) plus the designated lock deposit. Persons may rent more than one (1) half-size locker per floor, providing that the lockers are not connected together vertically.

b. Full-Size Lockers

Single full-size lockers shall be rented out at a cost of ten dollars ($10.00) plus the designated lock deposit.

c. Full-Size Lockers - Forestry

Members enrolled in the Forestry programme only may rent two (2) full lockers at a cost of fifteen dollars ($15.00) plus the designated lock deposit for two (2) locks.

6. Locks

a. Lock Rental and Deposit

Combination locks shall be made available for rent. A lock deposit of five dollars ($5.00) per lock shall be charged in addition to the locker rental prices as defined in section 4 of this policy, and refunded when the member cleans and moves out of his/her locker and returns the same lock(s) to the Student's Union office, undamaged, before the designated end of the locker rental period.

b. Replacement of Damaged/Lost Lock

Locks provided by the Students' Union will be replaced at no charge if found to be faulty due to no fault of the member renting the lock. Locks provided by the Students' Union that are damaged by misuse or lost shall be replaced with an additional deposit of five dollars ($5.00), and the damage deposit for the first lock shall not be refunded.

c. Use of Own Lock

Members may supply their own lock, so long as the combination is registered with the Students' Union office or a copy of the key is left with the Students' Union Office.

7. Modifications and Damage/Vandalism to Lockers

a. Use of Stickers and Other Materials Placed With Adhesives

The placement of stickers and other materials that will stick to the interior of a locker is permitted only if the member is able to remove the material him/herself by the end of the locker rental. No stickers or other materials may be placed on the exterior of a locker unless placed by authorized Students' Union representatives, as designated by the Executive Committee.

b. Graffiti

Graffiti of any kind inside and outside lockers is strictly prohibited.

c. Modification, Vandalism and Damage to Lockers

I. Any sort of physical modification to lockers, including the removal of permanently fixed locker components such as shelving, is strictly prohibited unless authorized beforehand by authorized Students' Union representatives, as designated by the Executive Committee.

II. Intentional damage or vandalism to lockers is strictly prohibited

8. Penalties for Violations of This Policy

a. Cancellation of Locker Rental

A locker rental may be revoked if there is a violation of this policy. A communication to the provided contact information, such as phone number or email, and a written notice must be posted on the locker at least two (2) weeks prior to the day the locker must be vacated.

b. Graffiti and Vandalism

If by the end of the locker rental period a locker is left in a very dirty state, covered in graffiti and/or stickers, or damaged a fine of up to $25 may be levied and the person responsible cannot rent another locker until the fine is paid. Persons affected may appeal this in writing to the Executive Committee.

c. Locker clean out fee

If your locker is not cleaned out and your possessions are left in the locker after the assigned expiry date, your locker will be cleaned out and your possessions held in our office for 10 business days upon which they will be donated to a local charity. If you wish to recover your possessions before they are donated, a $25 clean out fee will be charged.

By signing the Locker Rental Registration Form, an acknowledgment of understanding is made to the regulations set out in the Locker Rental Policy. A rental expiry date will be contractually set where after that date, any/all property inside the locker will then become the property of the Students' Union and will immediately be disposed of, recycled, and/or donated after the ten (10) business days from expiry date on the Locker Rental Registration Form.

9. Access to Lockers

Authorized Students' Union representatives, as designated by the Executive Committee, may access lockers only upon the following circumstances:

- a. upon request of the person renting the locker;
- b. upon failure of the person renting the locker to respond to a written notice as per section 7 subsection a) of this policy;
- c. by the end of the locker rental period, if the person has failed to clean and move out of his/her locker by that time;
- d. upon written request of a legal guardian or representative, if the person renting the locker is unable to return to the campus (due to leaving Prince George for an extended period of time, death, etc) to access his/her own locker;
- e. upon official request from the College for the purpose of repairing the locker;
- f. upon official request from the College for security and/or emergency purposes (such as fire or flooding); or
- g. upon official request from the College in conjunction with an official search warrant from a Canadian

10. Liability

The Students' Union accepts no responsibility and is not liable for damage or loss of any kind to locker contents and/or user-supplied locks.

11. Posting of Locker Policy

This policy shall be posted in a conspicuous manner in the Students' Union office. Members renting lockers may request to review the policy before renting a locker.

2.9 Student Advocacy Support

Category:	Services	Created:	May 9 2015 by Executive
Responsibility:	Secretary (elected)	Last Amended:	N/A

APPEALS

Preamble

College policy covers both academic and non-academic codes of conduct and as such has laid out provisions for grade, clinical and non-academic appeals. Over the years, members have benefitted from the support of the Students' Union in ensuring fair process, to navigate the policies, timelines as well as to advocate for a student centered approach in how the College handles student appeals.

1. Identifying relevant and applicable policies*

Students' Union staff and representatives who have oriented themselves to College appeal policy are available to meet with and discuss the nature of the appeal and the desired outcome to determine whether an informal or formal appeal process should be sought and to adhere to the appropriate and most applicable policy.

2. Accompaniment to meetings with Instructor

Students' Union staff and representatives who have oriented themselves to College appeal policy may, at the request of a member accompany them to a meeting in order to witness discussions and to take notes as needed.

3. Accompaniment to meetings of Appeal

Students' Union staff and representatives who have oriented themselves to College appeal policy may, at the request of a member accompany them to a meeting in order to witness discussions and to take notes as needed.

ADVOCACY

Confidential – the Students' Union will maintain the confidentiality of information provided to the Student Advocate unless directed otherwise by the student providing the information. This confidentiality enables students to discuss matters with the Student Advocate and receive advice without taking action. Confidentiality will be deemed void if a student makes comments about doing harm to themselves or others, or if a student speaks to the Student Advocate about a criminal act. The Student Advocate is neither a lawyer nor medical professional, and there is no legal privilege attached to communications between students and the Student Advocate.

Impartial – The Students' Union will not take sides in disputes, complaints or appeals but will work to ensure the rights of students are respected, and that both the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are applied in dealing with student appeals, complaints and disputes.

Independent – The Students' Union operates independently from the College of New Caledonia and is responsible to CNC students who are Students' Union members.

2.11 Volunteers

Category:	Services	Created:	April 27th, 2021 by Executive
Responsibility:	Secretary (elected)	Last Amended:	N/A

Preamble

The College of New Caledonia Students' Union often requires member participation when hosting events, coordinating campaigns, and conducting student outreach. Over the years, the College of New Caledonia Students' union has worked with student members to engage the student population and advocated for student rights. Student volunteers have become integral to a lot of the activities our organization has done.

1. Role and Responsibilities of Student Volunteers

Students' Union volunteers are responsible for tasks assigned by the Executive Committee and/or any Students' Union staff. These may be various responsibilities concerning Students' Union events, College of New Caledonia events, federal/provincial/municipal campaigns and any other tasks assigned by the Executive Committee.

2. Recruitment

Students at the College of New Caledonia may voluntarily enroll themselves in the Volunteer program. Recruitment for volunteers will primarily be done at college events or online.

3. Compensation

Students participating in the Volunteer program are entitled to the rights to publicly share their involvement with the Students' Union as a volunteer, and be eligible for any rewards given to volunteers based on hours worked / tasks done.

2.12 Member-at-Large

Category:	Services	Created:	April 27th, 2021 by Executive
Responsibility:	Secretary (elected)	Last Amended:	N/A

Preamble

Throughout the academic year, students often come to the Union with the intention of collaborating on a level above our day-to-day volunteers. These students intend on making impacts at the college level, and want to work with the Union on things such as committees, project development and the implementation of any plans the Union may have for events and campaigns. Working with the Union would give these students the opportunity to develop their skills and grow as leaders outside of being an elected director or volunteer.

1. Definition

A Member-at-Large is a member of the College of New Caledonia Students' Union who works alongside the CNCSU Executive Board and Union staff. Members-at-Large do not hold a vote at Executive Meetings and are not compensated monetarily. The Member-at-Large position is a voluntary position.

2. Role and Responsibilities of Members-at-Large

The duties of a Member-at-Large are to be decided by the executive committee depending on the skills and previous experience of the student.

3. Recruitment

The Students' Union shall make a public posting about the recruitment of Members-At-Large. Interviews shall be conducted to select students that most appropriately fit needed skill-sets, have relevant experiences and will best represent the Executive Board in the community.

4. Capacity

Acknowledging that the college population changes year-to-year with fluctuating numbers of students, the capacity of Members-at-Large will naturally change as well. Each semester, the executive board is expected to set the number of students accepted into the Members-at-Large program.

5. Compensation

Students' accepted into the program are not paid employees. Compensation for those in the program can publicly state that they worked at the Students' Union in the capacity of a Member-at-Large, gain experience on various different committees in the Students' Union and College, and be eligible for any appropriate rewards based on hours/tasks done during their time as a Member-at-Large

2.13 Unity Lounge

Category:	Services	Created:	December 2 2025 by Executive
Responsibility:	Membership Outreach	Last Amended:	N/A

Preamble

The CNCSU Unity Lounge exists to provide a welcoming, comfortable, and identity-affirming space for students who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+ ("Pride students") and for Women-identifying students. This space is intended to foster community, safety, and belonging. To honour its purpose, designated days and access guidelines ensure that those who rely on the Unity Lounge for support can enjoy it without interruption. This policy outlines the expectations for use, access, and stewardship of the space.

1. Purpose

The Unity Lounge serves as:

- A safe space for Pride-identifying students.
- A safe space for Women-identifying students.
- A community hub for identity-based support, peer connection, and CNCSU programming.

2. Designated Access Days

To ensure fair and intentional access for both groups, the Unity Lounge operates under the following weekly schedule:

- Women's Days (2 days per week):
Access is reserved exclusively for students who identify as women.
- Pride Days (2 days per week):
Access is reserved exclusively for students who identify as 2SLGBTQIA+.
- CNCSU Executive Committee Day (1 day per week):
The CNCSU may use the space for internal meetings and programming.
The schedule for these days will be posted publicly and reviewed periodically to support student needs.

3. Access Rules

- On Women's Days, only Women-identifying individuals may enter or use the space.
- On Pride Days, only Pride-identifying individuals may enter or use the space.
- Respect for others' identities is mandatory; questioning or challenging someone's identity is not permitted.
- Students are expected to uphold the safety and comfort of everyone in the space.
- At the Coordinators' discretion, students who are allies can be given access to the space with notice given to the Membership Outreach Coordinator.

4. Space Management and Coordinators

The Unity Lounge is overseen by:

- Membership Outreach Coordinator — responsible for overall management of the space, scheduling, and policies.
- Pride Student Coordinators & Women Student Coordinators — responsible for monitoring the space, maintaining cleanliness, supporting programming, and helping to ensure a safe environment.
 - Coordinators are selected and trained by the Membership Outreach Coordinator.
 - Coordinators serve as points of contact for questions, issues, and day-to-day needs within the space.

5. CNCSU Access to Unity Lounge

If the CNCSU requires operational access to the Unity Lounge on a day they are not normally permitted to enter (based on identity restrictions):

23

- The staff member must get approval to enter by at least one Coordinator (Pride or Women's, depending on the day) or, if no coordinators are present, the approval of all members using the space at the time.

- The Coordinator will attend or grant access in a way that respects the identity restrictions and maintains the integrity of the space.
- This access is for operational purposes only and should be minimized whenever possible.

6. Respectful Use of the Space

All students using the Unity Lounge are expected to:

- Treat others with dignity and respect.
- Maintain cleanliness, shared responsibility, and community care.
- Report safety concerns or incidents to a Coordinator or directly to the Membership Outreach Coordinator.
- Honour the purpose of the room as an identity-based safe space.

7. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed annually by the CNCSU Membership Outreach Coordinator, in consultation with the Pride Students' Representative and Women Students' Representative, to ensure the Unity Lounge continues to meet the needs of the Pride and Women-identifying students.

Category:	Services	Created:	Sep 25, 2005 by Executive
Responsibility:	Secretary (elected)	Last Amended:	N/A

Preamble

Conflict of Interest shall be defined as “a situation in which a person has a private or personal interest sufficient to appear to influence the objective exercise of his or her official duties.”

(Definition by Dr. Michael McDonald, Director of the UBC Centre for Applied Ethics).

1. Declaration of Interests

At the first meeting held after the ratification of election results, all members of the Executive Committee must disclose all interests which might cause a conflict of interest including, but not limited to:

- a) membership in any Students' Union clubs;
- b) membership on any external executives or boards that the Students' Union may have regular dealings with;
- c) financial interests (such as ownership, holdings, shares, etc.) that may impact on Students' Union operations; and
- d) employment with the College or municipal, provincial or federal governments.

Members of the Executive Committee are required to declare if they could possibly be in a conflict of interest during discussion of business at a meeting, and formally abstain from voting on specific money and privilege issues in relation to the business at hand.

2. Employment Conflict of Interest

- a. If a member of the Executive Committee wishes to apply for positions of employment within the operations of the Students' Union, they must resign from the Executive Committee before submitting an application.
- b. Members of the Executive Committee must resign from any other paid position within the operations of the Students' Union before being ratified to their position.

3. Club Conflict of Interest

Members of the Executive Committee who are members of clubs are required to formally abstain from discussing and voting on specific money and privilege issues for their particular club, but shall be allowed to participate in discussions or vote on motions that affect all clubs in general.

3.10 Personal Information Protection Policy

Category:	Services	Created:	Aug 30, 2004 by Executive
Responsibility:	Secretary (elected)	Last Amended:	N/A

Preamble

At the College of New Caledonia Students' Union, we are committed to providing our members with exceptional advocacy and service. As providing our political work and services involves the collection, use and disclosure of some personal information about our members, protecting this personal information is one of our highest priorities.

While we have always respected our members' privacy and safeguarded their personal information, we have strengthened our commitment to protecting personal information as a result of British Columbia's Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA). PIPA, which came into effect on January 1, 2004, sets out the ground rules for how B.C. businesses and not-for-profit organizations may collect, use and disclose personal information.

We will inform our members of why and how we collect, use and disclose their personal information, obtain their consent where required, and only handle their personal information in a manner that a reasonable person would consider appropriate in the circumstances.

This Personal Information Protection Policy, in compliance with PIPA, outlines the principles and practices we will follow in protecting members' personal information. Our privacy commitment includes ensuring the accuracy, confidentiality, and security of our members' personal information and allowing our members to request access to, and correction of, their personal information.

1. Scope of Policy

This Personal Information Protection Policy applies to the College of New Caledonia Students' Union and the CNC Ion student newspaper. This policy also applies to any service providers collecting, using or disclosing personal information on behalf of the Students' Union.

2. Definitions

Personal Information – means information about an identifiable individual, such as name, home address and phone number, income, education, and employment information. Personal information does not include contact information (described below).

Contact information – means information that would enable an individual to be contacted at a place of business and includes name, position name or title, business telephone number, business address, business email or business fax number. Contact information is not covered by this policy or PIPA.

Privacy Officer – means the individual designated by the Executive Committee with the responsibility for ensuring that the Students' Union complies with this policy and PIPA.

3. Collecting Personal Information

a) Unless the purposes for collecting personal information are obvious and the member voluntarily provides his or her personal information for those purposes, we will communicate the purposes for which personal information is being collected, either orally or in writing, before or at the time of collection.

b) We will collect member information that is necessary to fulfill the following purposes:

- To verify identity;
- To identify member preferences;
- To provide locker rental and other services;
- To send out Students' Union membership information;
- To contact our members and make them aware of meetings and events;

- To ensure a high standard of service to our members; and
- To meet legal/regulatory requirements.

4. Consent

- a) We will obtain member consent to collect, use or disclose personal information (except where, as noted below, we are authorized to do so without consent).
- b) Consent can be provided orally, in writing, electronically, or through an authorized representative, or it can be implied where the purpose for collecting using or disclosing the personal information would be considered obvious and the member voluntarily provides personal information for that purpose.
- c) Consent may also be implied where a member is given notice and a reasonable opportunity to opt-out of his or her personal information being used for mail-outs and the member does not opt-out.
- d) Subject to certain exceptions (e.g., the personal information is necessary to provide the service or product, or the withdrawal of consent would frustrate the performance of a legal obligation), members can withhold or withdraw their consent for the College of New Caledonia Students' Union to use their personal information in certain ways. A member's decision to withhold or withdraw their consent to certain uses of personal information may restrict our ability to provide a particular service or product. If so, we will explain the situation to assist the member in making the decision.
- e) We may collect, use or disclose personal information without the member's knowledge or consent in the following limited circumstances:
 - When the collection, use or disclosure of personal information is permitted or required by law;
 - In an emergency that threatens an individual's life, health, or personal security;
 - When the personal information is available from a public source (e.g., a telephone directory);
 - When we require legal advice from a lawyer;
 - For the purposes of collecting a debt;
 - To protect ourselves from fraud;
 - To investigate an anticipated breach of an agreement or a contravention of law

5. Using and Disclosing Personal Information

- a) We will only use or disclose member personal information where necessary to fulfill the purposes identified at the time of collection or for a purpose reasonably related to those purposes such as:
 - To conduct member surveys in order to enhance the provision of our services;
 - To contact our members directly about meetings, events and services that may be of interest;
 - To conduct elections and referenda
- b) We will not use or disclose member personal information for any additional purpose unless we obtain consent to do so.
- c) We will not sell member lists or personal information to other parties.

6. Retaining Personal Information

- a) If we use member personal information to make a decision that directly affects the member, we will retain that personal information for at least one year so that the member has a reasonable opportunity to request access to it.
- b) Subject to the subsection above, we will retain member personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the identified purposes or a legal or business purpose.

7. Ensuring Accuracy of Personal Information

- a) We will make reasonable efforts to ensure that member personal information is accurate and complete where it may be used to make a decision about the member or disclosed to another organization.
- b) Members may request correction to their personal information in order to ensure its accuracy and completeness. A request to correct personal information must be made in writing and provide sufficient detail to identify the personal information and the correction being sought. A request to correct personal information should be forwarded to the designated Privacy Officer.
- c) If the personal information is demonstrated to be inaccurate or incomplete, we will correct the information as required and send the corrected information to any organization to which we disclosed the personal information in the previous year. If the correction is not made, we will note the members' correction request in the file.

8. Securing Personal Information

- a) We are committed to ensuring the security of member personal information in order to protect it from unauthorized access, collection, use, disclosure, copying, modification or disposal or similar risks.
- b) The following security measures will be followed to ensure that member personal information is appropriately protected:
 - the use of locked filing cabinets;
 - physically securing offices where personal information is held;
 - the use of passwords and firewalls;
 - restricting elected representative and employee access to personal information as appropriate (i.e., only those that need to know will have access; contractually requiring any service providers to provide comparable security measures).
- c) We will use appropriate security measures when destroying member's personal information such as shredding documents and deleting electronically stored information.
- d) We will continually review and update our security policies and controls as technology changes to ensure ongoing personal information security.

9. Providing Members Access to Personal Information

- a) Members have a right to access their personal information, subject to limited exceptions such as
 - solicitor-client privilege
 - disclosure would reveal personal information about another individual
- b) A request to access personal information must be made in writing and provide sufficient detail to identify the personal information being sought. A request to access personal information should be forwarded to the designated Privacy Officer.
- c) Upon request, we will also tell members how we use their personal information and to whom it has been disclosed if applicable.
- d) We will make the requested information available within 30 business days, or provide written notice of an extension where additional time is required to fulfill the request.
- e) A minimal fee may be charged for providing access to personal information. Where a fee may apply, we will inform the member of the cost and request further direction from the member on whether or not we should proceed with the request.
- f) If a request is refused in full or in part, we will notify the member in writing, providing the reasons for refusal and the recourse available to the member.

10. Questions and Complaints: The Role of the Privacy Officer

- a) The Privacy Officer is responsible for ensuring the College of New Caledonia Students' Union's compliance with this policy and the Personal Information Protection Act.
- b) Members should direct any complaints, concerns or questions regarding the College of New Caledonia Students' Union's compliance in writing to the Privacy Officer:

Privacy Officer
College of New Caledonia Students' Union
Room 1-303, 3330 22nd Avenue
Prince George, BC, V2N 1P8

Tel: (250) 561-5852
Fax: (250) 561-5884

Email: info@cncts.ca

If the Privacy Officer is unable to resolve the concern, the member may also write to the Information and Privacy Commissioner of British Columbia.

12. Posting of Personal Information Protection Policy

This policy shall be posted in a conspicuous manner in the Students' Union office.
